Narrative:

On April 20, 2010, at 1245 hours, deputies responded to the 9700 block of Loftus Drive, Rosemead, regarding a residential burglary in progress. The anonymous caller stated several unknown males were taking items from a van into the location. Upon the deputies' arrival, they observed four individuals run from the vehicle. A containment was quickly established and the four were subsequently apprehended. During the investigation, the van, which was parked in the driveway of the location with its rear doors open, was searched. The van
